Content Walkthrough Wild Pokemon List Trainers List Walkthrough Explore Eterna City! When you reach in front of the Galactic Building, Barry comes to see you and takes you to the statue of Eterna's legendary Pokemon. You can buy herb items like Revival Herbs at the Northern House. Herb items heal your Pokemon, but lower their friendship when used because they are so bitter. Go back to the entrance to the Galactic Building to meet Cynthia. Receive Hidden Machine 01 Cut from Cynthia, although you can't use Cut in the box until you get the Gym Badge at Eterna Gym. There's an old guy who does name-rating service on the first floor of the condominium that's south of the Pokemon Center. The old woman who lives on the second floor of the condominium gives you TM67 Recycling. To the right of The Pokemon Center is Underground Man's House. Receive the Explorer Kit from Underground Man. You can challenge missions given out by the man. You meet Professor Rowan's apprentice in the south gate. You receive Exp. Share if you've seen many Pokemon. Go to Eterna Gym and Galactic Building! Head to Eterna Gym, located at the south end of the city. Get Forest Badge and TM Magic Leaf. Now that you have the Forest Sign, you can use Cut outside battle. Cut the thin wood in front of the northwest building and into the building. This is the Team Galactic Eterna Building, one of Team Galactic's headquarters. Get a bike! Once you've defeated Jupiter in T.G. Eterna Bldg, visit Rad Rickshaw's Cycle Shop. Rad Rickshaw is back, so have a word with him to receive the bike. While riding the bike, you can pass the south gate to appear in Route 206. Looks like your rival's headed that way, too. You will be contacted by the detective when you enter the city. Head north to Route 204, where you'll find a pair of Galactic Grunts confronting Professor Rowan. You'll team up with Rowan's assistant in your first double game of the game. After the battle, the Galactic Grunt will flee north, while Rowan and his assistant will return to Sandgem. A spectator will give you a Fashion Case for your efforts in the fight. Now that you have a badge, you will be able to use the Global Trading Station (GTS), which can be found west of the coach's school. When you're done with Jubilife City, follow the grunts north on Route 204. You come across a small cave known as the ravaged path. You'll need to learn Rock Smash for one of your Pokemon to continue north - examine one of the rocks inside and you'll have the chance to command a Pokemon to break it. Floaroma Town You will notice a few aesthetic changes from diamond and pearl as you pass under the new sign at the entrance to Floaroma Check out the Pick a Peck of Colors Flower Shop, where you can grab some free berries. You can also choose berries from the plants outside, and you can plant and grow your own berry plants in similar patches of dirt. You will need Sprayduck watering can from inside the Flower Shop. Head east on Route 205 and talk to the little girl standing in the middle of the path. Her father is being held hostage by Team Galactic, so continue east and you will reach Valley Windworks. You will find a Galactic Grunt standing at the entrance to the building there, then talk to him and he will fight you. When you defeat him, he runs in and locks the door. Head back to Floaroma Town and head north to Floaroma Meadow; you will find the two grunt former guarding entrance has gone inside and scares one of the locals there. You'll fight them both, one at a time. They will retire after the battle, and the man standing there will give you Works Key, which will open the building at Valley Windworks. You will also receive a pot of honey that you can smear on certain trees to attract Pokemon. Go back to Valley Windworks and enter the building. When you enter, one of the grunts will spot you and will warn the others. Follow him, and you will fight two grunts and their commander, Mars. Galactic will leave and the little girl will be reunited with her father. Outside, the detective will meet with you again and conduct a quick inspection of Valley Windworks before leaving again. The two Grunts blocking the bridge north to Route 205 have disappeared, so it's possible to continue that way now. Along the way to Eterna Forest you can see a small house where you can rest your Pokemon before continuing. Eterna Forest When you enter the dark forest, you will be approached by Cheryl, who will accompany you while you are in the forest. While she is with you, wild Pokemon battles will be double battles. You can only catch wild Pokemon when there's one left, but since Cheryl's Chansey acts independently of you, this can be a bit more difficult than expected. You'll get the chance to come back when Cheryl leaves. While Cheryl is with you, you will also enjoy the benefit of having your Pokemon fully healed after each match. You will spot an interesting rock in the northwest corner of the forest. This is Moss Rock, which will develop an Eevee in a Leafon if it levels up near the cliff. To leave the forest, however, you must go in a north-easterly direction. The route can be quite windy (not weather kind of windy), but as long as you continue northeast, you will reach the exit. Cheryl will thank you for escorting her through and leaving you with a soothe Bell. You can go back and catch some Pokemon without interference, or you can finish to Route 205. You should return to Eterna Forest when you receive HM01 - Cut. Eterna City Just off Route 205 is Eterna City. There are a few things to do while you're here. Visit the house next to Pokemon Center and to the old man inside. He will give you the Explorer Kit, which lets you visit Sinnoh's Underground. Note that in Pokemon Platinum, underground has Wifi functionality. Next, try to head up past the north side of town and your rival will bump into you. You follow him to a big statue where you will see Cyrus inspect it. Both Cyrus and your rival will leave, so head back west to Pokemon Center and a woman named Cynthia will give you HM01 - Cut. You will need the Forest Badge from Eterna City Gym to use it, so head there now. You will notice a big change from Diamond and Pearl. Eterna Gym is adorned with a gigantic floral clock in the middle of the gym that will change time when you beat one of the trainers. You will have to beat all four coaches before they move on to Gardenia. Once you have defeated Gardenia, you will be rewarded with a Forest Badge that allows you to use HM01 (Cut) outside combat. She will also give you tm86 - Grass Knot, which inflicts damage based on the opponent's weight. Forest Badge also makes Pokemon of level 30 and below obey you even if they were obtained in a trade. « Previous section « » Next section » From Bulbapedia, the community-driven Pokémon encyclopedia. Eterna Forest has a reputation for being a mysterious place, from the abandoned old castle to the strange Moss Rock. Eterna Forest is a long and complex structure of trees that makes it a natural maze where a lot of people are lost. It is home to many Bug- and Grass-type Pokémon, and is currently the only known place in Sinnoh to find and capture the Buneary. Once inside, a woman named Cheryl will ask you to escort her through the woods as she is worried about being attacked by Team Galactic. When you travel with her, all wild encounters will be Double Battles! If you want to catch any of the Pokémon found here, it is recommended that you do so once you have parted ways; While you are in Cheryl's company, you are unable to catch wild Pokémon while there are two enemies on the track, and her Chansey will quickly finish a single Pokémon. You also have the opportunity to challenge pairs of trainers as a tag team with Cheryl or by yourself by talking to them to fight individual battles. The biggest advantage of traveling with her is that after each match, she will fully heal your team! This makes Eterna Forest a great place to train for your upcoming Gym Battle. The most direct route from the southern exit to the northern exit is as follows: travel northeast from the entrance, through the tall grass, and then directly north, following the path between a Lass and a Bug Catcher. Then continue east a short way to the trees and then south to a large piece of tall grass. From there continue east until the eastern wall is reached. A significant distance north of there is the exit, around a small cliff ledge. But you can (and should) choose to deviate from this route as there are a lot of things and trainers that exist in the Eterna Forest. When you North exit, Cheryl will leave. When he leaves, Cheryl will give you the soothe bell as a gift. In addition, the old castle (where HM01 (Cut) is needed to clear the trees blocking it) is near the exit. You'll be back here later. Route 205 (east) When you get out of Eterna Forest and return to Route 205, simply walk across the bridge. The fishermen won't fight you unless you talk to them, so if you don't want the experience, just head straight out to Eterna City. Later, after defeating Eterna Gym and therefore acquiring the ability to use cut outside of battle, you can cut the small trees that separate the northern and southern parts of Route 205 and find more elements in this shortcut around eterna forest. Eterna City Once in Eterna City, you will see that Team Galactic has set up another headquarters. As usual, you will stop them from their evil work. The building is blocked by small trees, however, so you must first go to the Gym, and battle Gym Leader, Gardenia. Before that, go a little further and Barry will accompany you to the statue around the corner. When you walk up to the statue, you'll see Cyrus there. Once again he will make a reference to Sinnoh's legends. After Barry and Cyrus leave, you'll find a hidden Draco Plate right behind the statue. As you head back the way you came, you will meet Cynthia, who gives you a copy of HM01 (Cut)! Also talk to the lady in the Pokémon Center for a Pokétech app called Friendship Checker, which allows you to tell how much Pokémon in your party like you. This is useful when trying to develop Pokémon that develop with high friendship. Here are some other places you can check out in Eterna City: Underground Man Right next to the Pokémon Center is the house of Underground Man, which will give you the Explorer Kit. You can use this daily to travel to Sinnoh Underground, a large expanse of tunnels where you can mine for items and create a secret base. There are two potential types of fossils that can be mined in the Underground, but only one type is available per game. It has to do with the last digit of your coach ID number (visible on your coach card). If the last digit is strange, then you will be able to achieve Skull Fossil (Cranidos), but if it is even then you get the Armor Fossil (Shieldon). Fossils can be revived in their respective Pokémon in the Oreburgh Mining Museum. The fossils from generations I and III are only available after receiving The National Pokédex. Eterna Condominium's Main Article: Eterna Condominiums On the first floor of this building, Sinnoh's Name Rater can be found, as well as a boy named Norton who will trade a Chatot for a Buizel and on the second floor, an old lady will give away the TM67 (Recycle). Pokémon Games Location Levels Rate Chatot D Pt TradeBuizel Same as the traded Pokémon One A colored background means that Pokémon can be found at this location in the specified game. A white background with a colored letter means that Pokémon can't be found here. Herb Shop Main article: Herb Shop The Herb Shop is a shop that sells herbs with effects similar to other medicines. They are relatively cheap, but their bitter taste lowers the Happiness Pokémon they used to. Bike Shop Main article: Rad Rickshaw's Cycle Shop Of course, this is a shop where bikes are sold. However, you cannot buy a bike in the store. The owner is being held captive by Team Galactic! You can challenge Eterna City Gym if you want, but if you need more time to train or find new Pokémon you can check out the western side of Route 211 and part of the north side of Mt. Coronet by walking through Eterna City's eastern exit. See this section for more information about Route 211 and this section for Mt. Coronet's Northern Area. Eterna Gym Interior by Eterna Gym This Gym specializes in grass-types. Be aware that the highest leveled Pokémon you will encounter here is level 22 and quite powerful. Gardenia's Grass types are weak for Fire- and Flying-type movements. Avoid bringing Ground, Rock, and Water types, as these types are very weak against her Grass Pokémon. If your starter was Chimchar, it should be an easy fight. If not, the common Pokémon Starly develops into Staravia at level 14, and is a good Flying type that should be considered to have on any team, regardless of your starter. Once inside the gym, you'll need to find and fight three coaches before Gardenia faces you. The hands on the giant clock in the middle move every time you defeat a trainer. When they point north, south, east or west, you can walk across them to reach other areas of the gym. First, she will send her Turtwig, which will use movements like Sunny Day and Reflect to help create the rest of her Pokémon. But Sunny Day also powers up Fire-type moves that you can use to your advantage. Gardenias the entire team knows Grass Knot, an attack that does more damage to heavier Pokémon. If Turtwig had a chance to set up Sunny Day, Gardenia's Cherrim will have its attack and special defense increase by 50% because of its ability. Try to knock it out quickly so you don't get hit by Leech Seed, which will drain your HP to heal the opponent. Gardenia's highest-leveled Pokémon, Roserade, have an extra type of poison that makes it weak for psychological attacks. Along with the powerful magical leaf attack, Roserade also features Stun Spore, a trait that can paralyze, and Poison Sting, a weak attack that can poison your Pokémon. When you beat her, you will receive forest badge, TM86 (Grass Knot), and the ability to use Cut outside of battle. Now you can enter the Galactic Eterna Building. Eterna City Team Galactic Eterna Building 1F Galactic Eterna Building 1F Once inside the Team Galactic Eterna Building, Looker will approach you again. Several stairs in this building lead to dead ends where galactic grunts and objects are located. The correct stairs have a near them. Defeat the two grunt guarding the left staircase, then head upstairs. Fight the lone Grunt, gather X Speed behind him, then go back downstairs and up the right flight. 2F Galactic Eterna Building 2F Back on the second floor, make a quick detour up the right flight of stairs, defeat gryten and grab the X Special, which is partially hidden by the apparatus behind him, and then head back underneath. Before you go up the middle right staircase, talk to Grunt, who works at a computer for another fight. 3F Galactic Eterna Building 3F Battle the Scientist, then head up the right staircase leading up to 4F; You will find another dead end, but you can also collect a Blue Shard and a Revive. Go back downstairs and up the middle right staircase to the top floor. 4F Galactic Eterna Building 4F Collect Up-Grade to the right of Commander Jupiter, then talk to her to begin the fight. The biggest danger is her Skuntank, which at this point in the game the only options to deal with the super-efficient damage are Geodude's Magnitude or Shellos's Mud Bomb. Once defeated, Jupiter will retreat and say they no longer need this base, but warns you against interfering in Team Galactic's affairs again. The owner of Rad Rickshaw's Cycle Shop will tell you to meet him in his shop, then return to his shop - follow him back outside. Rad Rickshaw's Cycle Shop Pokémon Game Placement Levels Rate Togepe D PT Egg 1 A Colored Background means that Pokémon can be found at this location in the specified game. A white background with a colored letter means that Pokémon cannot be found here. Before you go to the store, visit the Pokémon Center and make sure that your party has a free seat - just before you arrive at the Bike Shop, you'll meet Cynthia again, who will give you a Pokémon Egg that hatches in a Togepe. When you meet Rad Rickshaw at his store, he'll give you a bike. You can ask him to read the manual for the bike here when you receive one. A unique feature of this bike is that the player can press the B button to switch between the third and fourth gears. Fourth gear is faster than third gear and allows the player to ride up muddy slopes and jump farther from bike ramps. Third gear can jump bike ramps, but don't jump that far. Head to Eterna City's south entrance - now that you have a bike, you're allowed on Route 206, The Bike Road. Finally, before you leave down, be sure to bring Pokémon who know the Cut, and the TM70 (Flash) (which is found in the basement of Oreburgh Gate) and Rock Smash as you need them to enter and navigate a few of the upcoming areas. A white background a colored letter means Pokémon can't be found here. The old castle's ground floor Now that you have Cut, you can visit the old castle, located in the north of eterna forest, at the end. Buy some Nest Balls from Pokémart in Eterna City and then back to Eterna Forest because the old castle is home to Rotom. Since there are no in-game coaches who use Rotom, you will have to face it here at some point to be counted as seen in your Pokédex. You find Gardenia near the entrance which, when you talk to her, seems too scared to go in because of ghosts. Rotom aside, the old castle is worth exploring to collect the goods inside it. Go up the stairs to find the hallway with several small rooms. The only wild Pokémon you will encounter here is Gastly, so you might want to bring some repulsion to save yourself some irritation. From here, use the first door on the left to reach a room with a TV. During the night (8:00 to 3:59), Rotom can be found here, hiding in the TV. Unlike in Diamond and Pearl, where you could only find it once National Dex is achieved, it can be found and captured right now. Go upstairs and into the main aisle, and save the game before interacting with the TV that Rotom has occupied. Rotom is not very tough, so beware of cutting its health down with flying-, bug-, or poison-type moves. Since Rotom is only level 20, Nest Balls will have the same catch rate as Ultra Balls in this meeting, so send it to sleep or paralyze it, and then use your Nest Balls to catch it. If you got Dusk Ball from Oreburgh City, then it will work even better than Nest Balls. Balls.
